Food Technology is taught within the Design and Technology department. This is well led and experienced department that has performed at a consistently high level for a number of years. The subject is taught as part of a carousel in KS3 and GCSE Catering is delivered in Key Stage 4.

Expectations

1. Be up to date, plan and prepare high quality teaching on a range of programmes in Food Technology, delivering effective learning for students
2. Effectively assess and cater for differentiation within lessons
3. Maintain comprehensive, up to date, student/course/subject records and provide information as requested
4. Ensure close liaison and good communications with other staff in matters concerning students

Candidate

We welcome applications from NQTs as well as experienced candidates. Suitable candidates will:

- be an outstanding teacher or have the potential and desire to become outstanding;
- be experienced in raising or have the desire to raise attainment;
- have proven experience of working or the desire to work successfully with students of all abilities and needs;
- be committed to our ethos of high expectations and no excuses with the belief that every child can succeed;
- have the resolve to make a real difference to the lives of pupils.

Our commitment to the successful candidate is to provide a suitably stimulating and supportive professional environment, with a bespoke range of both internal and external regular CPD and collaborative working across the department as well as other schools.

Application process

Visits to the school are welcome and encouraged. Please get in touch if you would like to arrange this: The Head of D&T would be more than happy to show you around, and answer any questions you may have in advance of the interview. Newman Catholic College is committed to promoting equality, challenging discrimination and developing community cohesion. We welcome applications from all sections of the community. We are committed to the protection of children and vulnerable adults.

Appointment is subject to a clear, enhanced DBS check.

Application forms must be completed and are available from the school website or by phoning the school office on 020 8965 3947. Please note that CVs will not be accepted.

Completed forms should be returned directly to Newman Catholic College at the above address or via email to Tomcy Rohan, HR Manager at trohan@ncc.brent.sch.uk.
